

Entrance documents

1. National passport (document certifying the identity and citizenship) and its translation into the Russian language, notarized at the notary bureau on the territory of Russia;

If the translation was made in the home country, the notarization must be done in the consulate of Russia.

README!: the translation of the name and the surname must correspond to the visa!

2. Certificate of previous education.

If the certificate is issued in a foreign language its translation must either be legalized at the consulate of the Russian Federation in the home country or apostilled.

If the translation was made on the territory of Russia it must be notarized by the notary bureau on the territory of Russia.

3. Certificate of recognition of foreign education in accordance with the RF legislation, except for cases in which such certificate is not required.

README!: the translation of the name and the surname must correspond to the visa!

4. Medical certificate on the absence of contraindications for training in Russia issued by the official agency of the applicant's home country in the Russian language
5. Certificate of the HIV-negative status and AIDS-negative status verified by the official agency of the resident country.